

"Why are you sad, Mother?" asks Justin.

"Because I lost my bracelet. It fell into the water while walking by the lake. It was one that your father gave to me eight years ago."

"I will buy you another one," says Father.

"No other bracelet can take its place," says Mother,

"It was very special."