

"Mother was so happy to get her bracelet back, she does not want us to ever forget you," says Jenna.

"We will have to return to school soon, but we don't want to stop seeing you," says Justin.

"It will be good for you to go to school again. Just keep reading, writing, and singing my song," says Milt, "We will be seeing each other again. I will keep my eyes open for you when you come back from school."

"WE ALL LOVE YOU, MILT!" the children shout.
